GOLF CARTS GALORE -- The University of Dayton's "Big Green Machine" will swing into action from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 24, as orientation opens on campus. Clad in bright green "Ask Me" t-shirts, the group of about 65 students will greet approximately 1,500 first-year students and their parents, using golf carts to help ferry belongings to residence halls. They'll be on hand to answer questions about UD and college in general and help with directions and campus tours. Orientation Center will be located in Gosiger Hall.

A LONELY PLANE RIDE -- For 10 years, out-of-state students coming to UD by airplane for orientation have found a friendly face waiting at the end of that lonely ride. UD admission counselors will staff a welcome table at Dayton International Airport Saturday, Aug. 24, for those students coming to campus by air. UD vans will help the students get their luggage to campus. One student, Charles Daley of Liverpool, N.Y., will be met at 9:59 a.m. Saturday. "Parents really appreciate the service, especially if the student is coming to college alone," says Myron Achbach, director of admission. "It gives them a really good feeling about UD."

LEARNING THE ROPES -- Newcomers embarking on this strange, new voyage called college will be able to learn from the masters as upperclass students lead groups of 12 to 15 freshmen in orientation groups Monday, Aug. 26. Students will meet in the Kennedy Union Ballroom at 9 a.m. and again at 1 p.m. for their group assignments.

A FORMAL HELLO -- The first dress-up event for the Class of 1995 will be the new student convocation at 8:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 27, in the UD Fieldhouse. Brother Raymond L. Fitz, S.M., president of UD, will greet the students, and there will be an academic procession, presentation of new students and faculty members, and a welcome address by the Rev. James L. Heft, S.M., UD provost.

WHEN IT'S TIME TO RELAX -- Good times are built into orientation at UD, with a social event planned each evening. Party in the Plaza will be held at 9 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 24, in Kennedy Union Plaza; Welcome Fest will be held Sunday, Aug. 25 with volleyball, football, Frisbee, etc. in Founder's Field at 4:30, a picnic at 6 p.m. in the tent by Kennedy Union, a concert at 6:30 in the tent and Pub Night at 9 p.m. in Kennedy Union Pub; Plaza Party II will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, Aug. 26 in McGinnis Center Plaza, 301 Lowes St.; and a pool party is planned at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 27, in the Physical Activities Center.
